Subject: Biography of Joseph and Esther Fickel, Gordon Nebraska

Following is a biography of Joseph and Esther Fickel. I believe it came from the 1976 publication, Recollections of Sheridan County, by the Sheridan County Historical Society. Joseph and his brothers Manley and John all came to Gordon, Nebraska -- all three are buried there. Their parents were Eli Fickel and Martha Madden. Eli's father was John, who was a son of Joseph Fickel and Mary Dusenbery.

BIOGRAPHY
From Recollections of Sheridan County, 1976, Sheridan County Historical Society
JOSEPH AND ESTHER FICKEL

Joseph Fickel was born in Putnam County, Ohio in 1859. He was a son of Eli and Martha Fickel and was one of eleven children. In 1885 he started out for himself and came to Sheridan County with three other men and located on the place where his son Arthur now lives. When he first came to Sheridan County, he drove through from Valentine to his homested. He farmed for a few years until dry weather set in then he started in the livestock business and had such good success that he continued in that business. He and his brother, Manley, acquired all of their property through hard and persistent labor, and by buying when land was cheap. They saw their share of hard times, but seemed to enjoy the good times also. Joseph "batched" for more than fifteen years. He passed away in April, 1936.

The Fickel ranch is located four miles east and six miles north of Gordon. The ranch is half sandhills and half hard land. When Joseph was living, calves from the ranch were sold locally to feeders who fed them out to yearlings. Now his son, Arthur, sells through the sale at Gordon auctions. The brand is still the Diamond Inverted Half Circle.

Esther Fickel was born to Hans and Hannah Nelson April 2, 1877. She was born in Denmark. This life story was told by Esther herself in July, 1969: My father came to America and settled in Sheffield, Illinois, working on the railroad. My mother, sister Cena and myself were required to remain in Denmark with my grandmother as she was not able to sustain herself alone. Later, she passed away, so we prepared for the trip to join my father in America. We came aboard a sailing ship of the King Walla Line and after experiencing storms and squalls on the high seas, we arrived in New York after about three weeks journey. One of my diversions during the voyage was to reach the upper deck and watch for the fish that followed the ship, as they came after food thrown overboard. We immigranted to America when I was five years old, got tickets to Sheffield, Illinois, where there was a large Danish settlement located. I got my first taste of school in America at Sheffield. The family dwelling there was a very simple rented house. Most all men worked on the railroad, and my father said anyone who could use a shovel could get work. All Dales were close-knit and all understood each other. I started to work when I was twelve years old. I was small and think, but tried to do anything that I was asked to do. As I grew a little older, I baked bread, cared for sick people, cooked for large families and always cared for children. At one time I was asked to bathe and dress a newborn baby for burial as none of the family felt they could do it, so I did my best at all times. I worked many places, but a few were Margraves, Duerfeldts, Croyell and Ed Ross's. All were grand people to work for. Mrs. Ross was like a mother to me and she was kind to all children. There was much sickness, such as typhoid fever. I got the fever and was real sick for many days, but thanks to the country doctor, Dr. Baker, a lady medical practioner, who came and left prescriptions, I ultimately recovered.

Joseph and Esther exchanged the vows of matrimony on November 29, 1899. They were married by Rev. Easily, with Mr. and Mrs. Scamahorn as witnesses. After their marriage they moved to the Fickel ranch which is still the home of their son, Arthur. Three children were born to them: Martha, now married to Carl Paulsen and living in Maryland, and Dorothy and Arthur, who live on the ranch and also have a nice home in Gordon. The Paulsens have three children: Joanne at home in Aberdeen, Maryland; Virginia and her husband, Bob Kerwin, who have three children, Christine, Bobby and Paul and live in Renton, Washington; and Carl Paulsen Jr. and wife and daughter, Amy, who are in the service in Germany at the present time.

Esther passed away on June 19, 1974 at the age of ninety-seven, after spending three and one-half years in a nursing home.

Will try to get back into my Fickle research soon. Anybody else making any progress?

Mary

ROBERT FICKLE, farmer, was born in Perry County, Ohio, October 5, 1819. His father, Jonathan, a native of Virginia and a Revolutionary soldier, moved to Ohio with his parents. Robert Fickle is the eldest son in a family of thirteen children. In his younger days he assisted in the support of the family, and got his education like all the rest —by the light of burning hickory bark and home study. He was reared to farming; began for himself in 1840, and voted for Harrison for President the same year. On March 3, 1842, he married Cynthia A. Vanshayck, of Franklin County, Ohio. They had born to them three children, all living, married and prosperous. This wife died September 1, 1852. His second wife is a sister to the first—Parthenia A. Vanshayck. They have five children. Mr. Fickle came to Illinois in 1867, and after a year bought his present farm of 240 acres. He has made all the improvements, and stock-raising is his mode of farming. In the late war he served in Company H, One Hundred and Thirty-third Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and participated in many hard-fought battles. He is a Methodist, a Republican, a radical temperance man, and voted for Salmon P. Chase for Govenor of Ohio. He has made every cent of his property by his own exertions.

Robert Fickle is the eldest son in a family of thirteen children. In his younger days he assisted in the support of the family, and got his education like all the rest—by the light of burning fallen logs and some study. He was married to Deborah Yeagley, a native of Pennsylvania, and started in life in a log house in the forest—Jackson A. Township. They have five children. Mr. Fickle came to Illinois in 1867, and after a year bought his present farm of 240 acres. He has made all the improvements, and stock-raising is his mode of farming. Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the War of 1812 record of Daniel Fickle, son of Joseph and Elizabeth Fickle. You state that he served from Ohio under Captain George Ziegler and in 1818 had a wife named Hetty.

The record follows of the only Daniel Fickle found in the War of 1812 pension records of this office. The data therein were obtained from the papers in the claims under File No. S. O. 15358, based upon his service in the War of 1812.

The date and place of birth of Daniel Fickle and names of his parents are not shown.

Daniel Fickle volunteered in that part of Middletown, Fairfield County, which later became Somerset in Perry County, Ohio, and served from May 6, to May 27, 1813, as private in Captain George Ziegler's company of Ohio militia, and was discharged at Fort Meigs, Ohio.

While residing in Cass County, Indiana, aged sixty-one years, Daniel Fickle applied December 8, 1855, for bounty land which was due on account of his service in the War of 1812, and was allowed one hundred sixty acres of bounty land on Warrant #71935, under the Act of March 3, 1855. In 1871, he was living in Galveston, Cass County, Indiana.

Daniel Fickle stated in 1871 that he married February 14, 1856, in Kokomo, Indiana, Malinda Jones. He gave no information concerning Malinda, nor did he make reference to any other wife or to any children.

REPRODUCED AT THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

If you desire information relative to the location of the bounty land granted to the soldier, Daniel Fickle, you should apply to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, Interior Department, this city, and furnish that official the number of the warrant, the acreage and date of the act under which issued.

Very truly yours

EDWARD HAMILTON & RACHEL FICKLE

Marion Library. Marion, Ohio

five years he has been Class-Leader, and has also served as Trustee, Steward and an exhorter in the church at Grant. His parents were connected with the Scotch Presbyterian Church, and his father was an Elder. Interested in educational matters, he has rendered efficient service as School Director, and for many years filled the office of Township Trustee. In every position of trust to which he has been called, he has done everything in his power to promote the moral, educational and agricultural interests of his section and is justly numbered among the most influential men of his community. Socially he held fraternal relations with the Order of Good Templars during the existence of that organization.

GEORGE H. HAMILTON has lived for the past seventeen years on section 17, Pleasant Township, Hardin County. His home lies two and a-half miles north of Kenton, and the farm contains one hundred and sixty-six and three-quarters acres, improved with good buildings, fences, etc. He has many friends in this community, and enjoys an enviable reputation for his uniform integrity and sterling worth. Never an office seeker, he yet has been called upon to serve as School Director and Road Supervisor, but aside from these offices has managed to keep out of public affairs. On questions of National importance his ballot is given to the Democracy, but in local matters he is independent.

William Hamilton, our subject's father, was born in Virginia, June 12, 1800. His father, Edward Hamilton, was born in Scotland in 1770, and was brought to the United States in his youth by his father (who was a brother of Alexander Hamilton, the great American statesman). After living for two years in Connecticut, the family moved to Virginia, where Edward received part of his education. He was a great scholar and mathematician. For over forty years he was a Steward in the Methodist Episcopal Church. He married Rachel Fickle in Virginia, and in the fall of 1822 they crossed the mountains to Ohio, their journey being made in a peculiar way. Two cows, hitched one before the other, were placed in these carriages, while the mother rode the animal, the following spring carrying its yoke and all their possessions; but the former was an excellent conveyance, and with it came on the way to Ohio, and to this county, three miles northeast of Somerset, where Mr. Hamilton entered eighty acres of land, which was then in a dense forest of hickory, walnut, whitewood and maple trees. When George H. was a lad of seventeen, he spent one winter with his grandparents, helping to make fifty gallons of delicious maple syrup. During the War of 1812 Edward Hamilton was in the service, and for three days was in Detroit when just before that it surrendered, going on his way to reinforce that General, but the account of his surrender defeated. He died in 1850, and his wife's death took place just two days prior to his own, she being in her seventy-eighth year. Of their children, Elizabeth first married a Mr. Joslyn, and after his death became the wife of Henry Warrick; Joseph settled in Brownsville, Ohio; Sarah married Dick Barnett, who lived to be one hundred and one years of age; Mrs. Rachel Bowser, formerly resided in Perry County, but later moved to Franklin County, Ohio; Benjamin ran a tannyard, in connection with his brother James, in Marion County for many years; James, a farmer of Marion County, lived to celebrate his golden wedding; Samuel located in Fultonham, Perry County; Isaac died in Franklin County in February, 1895, when within six days of being eighty years of age; and Cary, the youngest, married Harrison Roberts, who resided in Muskingum County.

William Hamilton was about a year and a-half old when his parents brought him in the basket on horseback, previously alluded to, from his native state to Ohio. He was reared in Perry County and until he was seventeen years of age attended log schoolhouses, but much of his education was received from his father by a torch-light fire, and three of his brothers, who received like instruction, afterward became teachers in this state. When in his eighteenth year young William went to learn the carpenter's trade with his uncle, Edward Fickle, and afterward followed that business until his marriage, February 14, 1827, with Margaret Rice. He then rented a farm for a year, after which he bought one hundred and sixty acres north of Marion, Marion County. There he continued to dwell until his death, June 11, 1872, the day before the anniversary of the seventy-second year of his birth. For many years he followed his trade in various parts of Marion County, at the same time carrying on his farm. He was a life-long Democrat, and was respected by all who knew him. His wife was born in Chillicothe, Ohio, in 1805, being a daughter of Jacob and Nancy Rice, who were married in that city about 1802. The father was born in Germany, and after living for a few years in Chillicothe, put up the first horsemill erected in Marion County, and about 1837 moved to Adams County, Ill., where his death occurred. He was drafted into the service in the War of 1812, and was with Hull among the surrendered soldiers. Being kept a prisoner on an island in Lake Erie, he suffered much by hunger and cold during one winter, and lost two fingers and all his finger and toe nails by freezing. With his brother he was released the following summer and returned home. Mrs. Margaret Hamilton was one of five children. Her brother, Dr. Robert Rice, practiced in Fremont, Ohio, forty years, and his son, Dr. John R., was a surgeon in the army during the late war. John, another brother, lived in Marion County, until the close of the war, when he moved to Kansas. William settled near the old fort at Fremont; and Mary, the only sister, was three times married, first to a Mr. Lapole, then to a Mr. Bowers, and lastly to a Mr. Cobb, of Illinois. Mrs. Margaret Hamilton died in Marion County, January 11, 1880, after a long and useful life. Her education was largely obtained from a private teacher, who lived in the home of a Mr. Hopkins, in Scott Township, Marion County.

George H. Hamilton is next to the eldest of fifteen children, the others being as follows: Rachel, who died in Marion County; Mary, who died at the age of seventeen years; Carrie, wife of William Bowser, of Illinois; Elizabeth, who died at the age of eleven years; Samuel, whose death occurred in infancy; Edward, who departed this life in 1865; Caroline, who is now deceased, and who was formerly the wife of Van Search; Jane, deceased, formerly the wife of John Search; Marguerett, Mrs. William Reece, of Marion; Amanda, who married William Van Meter, of Marion County; Catherine, the wife of Louis Sosa, a blacksmith of Marion; Nancy, Mrs. Al Chapman, who lives in Marion County; William, who died in infancy; and Ella, who died at the age of twenty-six years, unmarried.

The subject of this sketch was born on a farm near Marion, April 17, 1829, and attended the district schools until he was nineteen years of age. On the morning of his twenty-first birthday his mother gave him a half-dollar coined in the year 1809, which had been given her by her mother, and which our subject still has in his possession. He started forth to make his own way, and for five months was employed by Thomas Hoops at $11 per month. Mr. Hoops later moved to Illinois and founded Hoopestown, where Mr. Hamilton has since visited him. Two years followed in which George H. worked at grading on the Bellefontaine & Indiana Railroad. March 15, 1853, he started for the Pacific gold-fields by way of New York and the Isthmus. At Aspinwall he took a skiff to Gorgona, on the Chagres River, and thence walked to Panama, where he embarked in the steamer "George Law" for San Francisco, arriving there April 14, 1853. Going to Sacramento, he tried to find an uncle there, but failed and went on with a party to Donaldville. He soon obtained a position at $100 a month and his board, and at the end of seven months bought an interest in a mine for $2,000, serving as Treasurer of the company until he left for home. In about a year and a-half he made $4,500, and he concluded to return East. At San Francisco he embarked on the steamer "Golden Gate," and when a few days away from Aspinwail yellow fever broke out on the vessel. Forty-seven of his fellow-passengers died, and one of these occupied the berth below his own, our subject's escape being a matter of surprise to everyone. While he was in California some earth caved in upon him and he was extricated only a moment before there was another slide, which would have buried him under twenty feet of debris. As it was, he was unconscious for eighteen hours and was obliged to use crutches for four months. He finally reached home safely, September 29, 1854, and soon after invested his savings in one hundred and eighty-four acres of land in Marion Township, Marion County, where he lived for twenty-three years. Selling out, he removed to his present farm April 2, 1877.

January 4, 1855, Mr. Hamilton was married, in Marion County, to Margaret J., daughter of John P. and Naomi (Mouser) Smith. The former was born in Virginia in 1803, being a son of Edward Smith, who died in the Old Dominion. In 1829 the father moved to a farm in Marion County, this state, where he departed this life in 1887. He was married in Jefferson County, Va., in 1827, his wife having been born in that locality, in 1803, to Jacob and Ave (Benner) Mouser. Mrs. Hamilton was born January 18, 1835, and is one of nine children, the others being, William, Jacob, Mary, Martha, George, one who died unnamed, Isaac and James. The union of Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton has been blessed with eleven children, namely: John W., who lives near Kenton; Naomi E., deceased, formerly the wife of Madison Birchfield, of Marion County; James A., a farmer of this neighborhood; Mary O., who died in 1889; Frank E. and Frances M., twins, the former living on a farm west of his father's homestead, and the latter having died in February, 1881; George A., who is engaged in farming in this vicinity; Ernest, whose death occurred in June, 1892; Minnie I., living at home; Orpha G., also at home; and Alpha S., who died in infancy.

During the War of the Rebellion Mr. Hamilton enlisted in Company B, One Hundred and Thirty-sixth Ohio Infantry, was mustered in at Camp Chase, May 11, 1864, and served four months under Colonel Irvin, being stationed most of the time near Alexandria and Washington. He is a member of Kenton Post No. 97, G. A. R. He is quite a traveler, having visited all the great cities of this country between the Mississippi River and the Atlantic seaboard, and having also spent much time in California, as before stated.
